

ADMINISTRATION FORCES CONTROL CONVENTION

FREIGHT RATES MUST INCREASE OVER ONE-HALF

Shippers urge Increase
be Spread Over all
Traffic

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, June 29.—Coastwise steamship companies of the Pacific petitioned the commission today for advances in freight rates equivalent to those asked by railroads of the west and south. Western roads are seeking an increase of 24 per cent and southern roads 31 per cent.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, June 29.—Freight rates must be increased 55 1/2 per cent if the roads' demands for increased freight rates and the men's demands for increased pay are granted, the Interstate Commerce Commission was told by Clifford Thorne, of Chicago, representing shippers.

Mr. Thorne recommended that the wage advances be added without further hearings to the costs upon which the roads now base their request for advanced freight rates; that a five per cent increase be made in passenger rates with the balance of freight tariffs to care for the present case and that any advance occasioned by the wage decision be spread over the entire earnings of the railroads from all sources.

"An added burden of two billions of dollars annually or over 50 per cent suddenly placed upon the freight traffic of the United States would be overpowering," Mr. Thorne declared. "No man could foretell the consequences."

Putting the entire advance on freight rates, Mr. Thorne said, will mean an increase in the cost of 60 per cent in the west of 50 per cent and in the south 60 per cent on freight rates.

"An increase of 1/2 per cent per passenger mile on passenger traffic, plus an increase of 20.26 per cent on all other traffic," Mr. Thorne continued, "would produce sufficient revenues to take care of the present needs of the carriers added to an increased wage of one half billion dollars. If the wage advance is one billion dollars, and the additional amount is placed on traffic other than passenger traffic, the percentage would be 29 per cent."

OPERATE AS 'UNIT'
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, June 29.—Operation of the railroads of the country "as a unit" to relieve transportation difficulties was suggested by William E. Colver, of the federal trade commission, today before the Washington Ad Club. Mr. Colver predicted that a continuation of the present situation would mean "untold suffering and industrial shutdowns next winter."

Only one tenth of the needed coal for next winter's supply has been moved to the head of the lakes, Mr. Colver said, while industries are actually closing down now for lack of coal. Farmers also are unable to obtain cars at a time when the new crop is coming in.

Predicts $25 Flour
Already, he declared, there are predictions of $25 flour and 25 cent bread. When operated separately, Mr. Colver said, even the largest railroad cannot operate profitably and at reasonable rates, if it has to supply motive power and equipment capable of taking care of the peak load which comes each year, but at varying seasons for the individual roads.

Many Teachers Are Needed in Lee Co.; Examination July 22

July 22 and 23 are the dates designated for the examinations for school teachers in the offices of all county superintendents in the state, excluding Cook county. County Superintendent L. W. Miller has received notice of this examination and is planning for a large attendance.

The examination will be for all grades of certificates and on account of the marked shortage of school teachers in this county it is hoped that the examination will be well attended. It is estimated that a shortage of 25 teachers who would qualify under the law exists in Lee county alone at this time and this is considered a small figure compared with some of the other counties in the state.

GAS SITUATION WAS SLIGHTLY IMPROVED IN THIS CITY TODAY

Not Likely Service Will Be Discontinued This Evening

With the receipt of one small carload of Kentucky gas coal yesterday by the Illinois Northern Utilities Co., and the discontinuance of service during the night, during which time a goodly supply of gas was accumulated in the big reservoir at the gas plant, the gas situation in Dixon was much improved today. At the office of the company it was announced at noon today that it would probably not be necessary to discontinue service this evening or tonight. Whether it will be necessary to cut off the supply at any time tomorrow depends very largely on the conservation patrons of the plant exercise in the use of gas tonight.

The arrival of the small carload of Kentucky gas coal came at a most opportune time and temporarily and partially relieved the gas company officials of a situation of unprecedented seriousness in Dixon. By mixing this coal with Illinois fuel the production of gas can be increased considerably; but as long as it is necessary to use any Illinois coal, and until the additional equipment which is being installed is completed and put into operation it is considered unlikely that the company will be able to maintain interrupted service.

Lone Train Robber May Have Been Shot

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Sacramento, Cal., June 29.—A lone bandit who boarded the Southern Pacific Atlantic express, at Davis, Cal. near here late last night and obtained about $200 in cash and a quantity of jewels from passengers was seen to fall from the train after Al Rodell, of Cleveland, O., a passenger had fired three shots point blank at him. The bandit climbed upon the rear platform of the observation car and held up the passengers compelling a brakeman to accompany him and pull back the curtains of the berth.

Jenkins, former American consular agent at Puebla, testified today that they were suspended in the air, struck and threatened with death by shooting until they agreed to testify against Jenkins. According to Puebla dispatches to El Universal this evening, Jenkins was kidnapped by the bandit Federico Cordova last fall and later was charged with complicity in his own capture.

Drew Found Guilty of Old Charge in Lee County Court

A jury in the county court last evening, returned a verdict finding Mike Drew guilty of a charge of disorderly conduct and affixing the fine at $3 and costs. Attorney John Erwin appeared in behalf of the defendant while City Attorney R. H. Scott represented the interest of the city as complainant.

The case was tried in justice court several months ago and a fine was assessed against the defendant. An appeal was taken to the circuit court and then reversed to the county court for jury trial. Practically the entire day was spent in the taking of testimony and examination of witnesses yesterday. There was no small amount of interest displayed in the case and at one stage of the proceedings, disorder loomed when one of the witnesses in emphatic terms, intimated that the defendant's attorney spoke other than the truth.

Houze had been working in the watch factory here under the name of Howell for more than a week. It was proven that Houze was in Elgin the night of the Moss murder.

Encouraged by their fine victory over the Mt. Morris Greys at Mt. Morris Saturday, which game they won 7 to 1, the Grand Detour Plov division team expects to give a real battle against the Emerson-Brautigan team of Rockford which will come to Dixon Saturday to meet the plow makers. The game will be played at the Brown Shoe Co. field and will be called at 3 o'clock.

ATTENDED CIRCUS.

Dixon people who went to Sterling yesterday to witness the advertised parade of the Yankee Robinson show were disappointed in seeing no parade. Shortage of help has caused the circus management to abandon the daily parades, it was announced. Many of the people from this city attended the performances of the shows, which they pronounced very entertaining.

Unit Rule Bone of Contention Before National Rule Body

By Associated Press Leased Wire
San Francisco, June 29.—The committee on rules of the Democratic national convention tackled again today the knotty question of whether a state delegation could be bound by the unit rule. The New York delegation came to the convention with its ninety votes bound by such a rule passed at a state convention over the protest of several of its members, who are renewing their fight here against the rule.

The question came up on a motion to adopt the rules under which the convention of 1912 operated, placing all states under the unit rule except those states in which there is a mandatory statute providing for the nomination and election of delegates in congressional districts. There is such a law in New York and the delegates from several of the districts are contending for the right to act independently for the delegation as a body.

Both sides of the controversy were heard and the intention is to fight the question out before presenting report to the convention.

Evangelist's Sermon Leads to Shooting in Michigan; One Killed

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Monroe, Mich., June 29.—Quiet prevailed today in the district surrounding Robideaux Corners near here, and most of the state police sent there last night in anticipation of a renewal of the disorder that resulted in the killing of one man and wounding of another, following a religious controversy, had returned to their headquarters.

According to Captain C. V. High, in command of the state troopers, the shooting was the result of feeling aroused over remarks alleged to have been made by an evangelist during a revival meeting. Rumors that a mob was coming out from Toledo to burn the church, kept the troopers on the alert throughout the night but no trouble occurred.

Alleged Trespass Case is Continued

The cases against four parties, charged with removing a barrier and driving over the new cement road on the Lincoln Highway west of Dixon, was called in Justice George W. Hill's court yesterday afternoon. Attorney John P. Devine was present representing the defendants and asked for a continuance on account of the absence of one of the parties from the city. The case was set for July 8.

ROBINSON SEES G. O. P. OUSTED FROM CONGRESS

Permanent Chairman
at 'Frisco Takes Rap
at Republicans

By Associated Press Leased Wire
San Francisco, June 29.—Senator Robinson of Arkansas, permanent chairman of the democratic national convention, in his speech today assailed the republican party for its Chicago platform, for disclosures of large sums of money in pre-convention contests, and particularly attacked the republican senators who fought the ratification of the peace treaty with the league of nations covenant.

"Tested by every standard which voters usually apply said he, 'the democratic party is entitled to victory in the coming campaign. Comparison of the democratic and republican records, contrasts of political policies and of party leadership justifies the belief that the republican party will be driven from power in both branches of congress and that complete control of the government will be restored to the democratic party in the November elections, because that party has earned the public confidence."

Hits G. O. P. Platform
"The republican platform adopted at Chicago, is an amazing jumble of ambiguities, inconsistencies.

Use of Money in Elections
"Perhaps the most significant omission from the republican platform is in respect to the excessive use of money in federal elections. In spite of the general indignities aroused by the expenditure of more than one million and one-half dollars in behalf of Gen. Wood and almost a million dollars in behalf of Gov. Lowden and the nomination of a dark horse as the result, no mention of the subject is found in the Chicago platform. The November election, however, will demonstrate the fact that the presidency cannot be auctioned."

"It has been said that partisanship ceases at the water's edge. The political record of the last few months belies this declaration. The republican party in the senate and in its recent convention presents to the world the humiliating spectacle of discordant and conflicting factions seeking to discredit the president in his efforts to maintain the respect and confidence of our allies."

Congregationalists in Boston Meeting

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Boston, June 29.—Congregationalists from many lands were here today for the fourth decennial International Congregational council. Nearly 3000 delegates representing 13,000 Congregational churches in all parts of the world, have registered.

The council, which will continue throughout Tuesday of next week, will celebrate the Pilgrim Tercentenary.

Among the more important questions to be discussed at the meetings here is the church unity movement. Rev. James L. Barton, D. D., secretary of the American board of Commissioners for foreign missions was unanimously elected permanent president of the council.

The vice presidents elected include Frank Kimball, Chicago.

Reap Held to Grand Jury; Bonds $2000

Frank Reap, former Dixon resident, waived preliminary examination in a justice court in Morrison yesterday on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses and was held to the grand jury under bonds of $2,000. Being unable to furnish the amount of the bond he was taken to the Whiteside county jail to await the action of the September grand jury. Reap is being represented by Attorney H. A. Brooks of this city.

He is charged with having secured groceries and other goods at a store at Coleta amounting to about $95 and a dresser from a Morrison furniture store, valued at $50.

Charles Keyes has gone to Grand Rapids, Mich., for a few days to attend the annual furniture show and will be in Chicago through the latter part of the week, attending a meeting of furniture dealers.

Delivery of nomination speeches will be in order while platform report is awaited.

M'ADOO'S FRIENDS IN CONVENTION TO CARRY ON PERSISTENT FIGHT

Headquarters Opened as Boosters Predict His Nomination

By Associated Press Leased Wire

San Francisco, June 29.—Such headquarters as William G. McAdoo will have at the convention were opened here today. They consist of three rooms rented by personal friends of McAdoo, and are used solely for conferences. No one is in charge of the rooms nor is a publicity campaign from them being planned. Conference delegates, however, will be held by McAdoo's supporters during the remainder of the convention.

Tentative arrangements for the McAdoo committee that is to work in the convention have been practically completed. Under the leadership of Samuel B. Amidon of Wichita, Kas., a steering committee consists of half a dozen first lieutenants and one man or woman from each state has been perfected. Practically all of the members of the committee are delegates and will work on the convention floor. No claims are being advanced by the McAdoo supporters as to the number of votes on the first or subsequent ballots. Reports made by men on different state delegations, however, claim anywhere from 250 to 350. These figures represent the minimum and maximum reports. The number of "second choice" votes in sight are said to number more than 300.

Mr. McAdoo's friends say he may run third in the balloting on early votes. They expect Palmer to lead because he has a tremendous "complimentary" vote that would be cast for him on the first ballot. Cox may run second they said and after the break will be towards McAdoo.

"The Tammany delegation is having a hard time deciding what to do regarding McAdoo. It will cast its early votes for Governor Smith, but will not make a hard fight for him because he is groomed for Tammany's candidates for Mayor of New York at the next election."

Indiana delegates say they will stick by Vice President Marshall as long as he is in the field, but if he should withdraw, McAdoo's friends say they will get a number of Hoosier votes.

June Failing to Live Up to "Rep."

Since June 26, 1919, a total of 277 marriage licenses have been issued from the Lee county clerk's office, the smallest number recorded in several years. Ordinarily the average number of marriage licenses issued in a year passes the 350 mark, generally with June being the leading month.

The month thus far this year, which is Dan Cupid's busiest time, has seen a noted falling off in requests for marriage licenses in this county and no satisfactory accounting can be made for the dearth of requests.

Band Concert This Week on North Side

This week's open air band concert by the Municipal Band under the auspices of the Dixon Chamber of Commerce, will be played in the John Dixon park on the north side Thursday evening, it was announced this morning. The installation of playground equipment, which prevented the holding of the concert there last week, has progressed sufficiently to permit the gathering in the park. The program, which is prepared by Director Smith, will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

Charles E. Keyes left today on a business trip to Chicago and Grand Rapids, Mich.

BRYAN'S ANTI- WILSON FIGHT MADE NO SHOW

President Honored by,
Big Demonstration
Late Yesterday

BULLETIN.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
San Francisco, June 29.—On the first division in the platform committee on an angle of the prohibition fight today, the Bryan dry forces were forced, over their protest, by a vote of 27 to 25 to present their case first in the committee hearings.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Auditorium, San Francisco, June 29.—Assembling an hour later than usual today, the Democratic national convention had before it only a routine session—a necessary time killer—to give opportunity for committee work on the outside and the final perfection of its organizing machinery. A second keynote speech by Senator Joseph T. Robinson, of Arkansas, the successful administration candidate for permanent chairman was the principal event on the program.

Prospects for a spectacular fight on the floor over the action of the credentials committee which sustained the Democratic national committee in its refusal to seat Senator Reed, of Missouri, as a delegate were hedged about with uncertainty. There were predictions that the contest would not be carried further unless Reed determined to attempt to force himself into a place with the Missouri delegation by proxy. The Georgia case also, in which the credentials committee sustained the national committee and seated Palmer delegates to the exclusion of the Smith-Watson faction, seemed to have been settled with finality, although there was always the chance of a last minute outburst.

Today Last Play Day.
Today's session, however, was the last play day for the delegates for under the rules as adopted the convention may go ahead hearing candidates placed in nomination while the platform committee is working, although it may not proceed to the balloting for a nominee until the declaration of party principles has been accepted.

San Francisco, June 29.—Administration forces went into the second day of the Democratic National convention apparently in full control of the situation. Senator Glass, of Virginia, as chairman of the resolutions committee; William J. Bryan, excluded from the sub-committee of nine chosen actually to draft the platform, while Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state, sits as the representative of President Wilson, Senator Joseph T. Robinson, of Arkansas, another staunch administration supporter, chosen for permanent chairman of the convention and administration men at the head of other committees.

Had promised to be a contest. The threatened anti-administration fight so far as it related to the organization of the convention machinery, collapsed without a showing.

Ready for Nominations.

At the same time the committee formulating the rules for the convention has cleared the way for the nominating speeches to be delivered while the resolutions committee is working on the platform. By unanimous action it decided that the various candidates may be placed in nomination while the platform deliberations are going on, but no balloting for a nominee may be conducted until after the platform has been brought in, perfected and adopted. This action will simplify and hasten the work of the convention very much.

Big Wilson Demonstration.

From the dramatic moment yesterday when a portrait of President Wilson was unveiled in the great convention auditorium to let loose a storm of tribute and approbation from party fellows in the floor, there seems little chance for those who had set themselves in opposition. The demonstration had fairly lifted the convention to its feet and set it marching through the aisles roaring and shouting. It was born in part of a solemn patriotic fervor that had preceded it and which had sent the rolling tones of the Star Spangled Banner into the caverns of the massive building with a force and volume that speak of hearts thrilling with high feeling.

Fervor Was Lasting.

The setting was almost beyond description. The majestic proportions of the building, the peal of the great pipe organ flooding the space with

Corn Prices Sagged as Result of Rains

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, June 29.—Rains in Iowa and showers in some other states led to much selling of corn and oats today, and to declines in prices. Opening prices which ranged from 3/4 to 2 1/4c lower were followed by moderate further setbacks, and then by something of a rally.

In oats, better weather more than offset bullish crop reports. Provisions were firm with hogs.

Excellent growing conditions for corn kept the market easy in the latter dealings. Prices closed unsettled 1 1/4 to 1 3/4c net lower.

Means' Attorney is "in Bad" With Court

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, June 29.—Charges by Colonel Thomas B. Felder, New York attorney for Gaston B. Means, one of the principals in the King will case that there was a plot to arrest his witness if they came here from New York brought a warning from Judge Baldwin against repeating the incident.

Colonel Felder made the charges in a newspaper interview and in court today produced a letter from Alexander F. Reichman, one of the trust company's lawyers, to assist District Attorney John T. Dooling of New York in which the alleged plot was broached.

The letter said that probate Judge Horner of Chicago, who last fall ruled against the alleged will of Mr. King produced by Means had approved the scheme.

TOLD OF PEOPLE OF INDIA—

On Sunday evening at the Brethren church a most interesting service was conducted by Rev. and Mrs. Wilbur Stover, returned missionaries from India, and their five children. Addresses were given by Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Stover, who for twenty-six years have been in India, the first missionaries ever sent out by the Church of the Brethren in the United States, and native songs were sung by the family. Seven years ago Mr. and Mrs. Stover returned to the United States and left their three older children here to be educated; the two younger children, who have been with their parents in India, do not even speak English language but that of the Hindu is as familiar to them as English is to the children of this country. Something of the great need of the people of India for the gospel was expressed by Mr. and Mrs. Stover in their talks. Mrs. Stover is a native of Mt. Carroll, a member of the Emmert family, and is related to O. E. Strook of this city.

COFFEY-CLIFFORD—

The marriage of Miss Gladys Coffey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Coffey, and Ralph Clifford took place at the Catholic parsonage at 9 o'clock Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schrock, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, attended them. The bride wore a dainty gown of white Georgette crepe and Mrs. Schrock wore a blue tulle gown. White roses were carried by the bride and Mrs. Schrock's flowers were red roses. After the ceremony a three-course wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's costume for the wedding trip to Chicago and Milwaukee, upon which they departed at 11 o'clock, was a tailored suit of beaver brown with blouse and hat in green. Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Elsie Clifford, the groom's mother, and his brother, Charles Clifford, both of Freeport. Many beautiful wedding gifts testified to the esteem in which both Mr. and Mrs. Clifford are held by their friends. Upon their return they will be at home at 405 E. Seventh St.

HEARD OF STATE CONVENTION—The Woman's Relief Corps, at its regular meeting in G. A. Rev. Ernest C. Lumsden invited the corps to attend the patriotic service to be held in the Methodist church on Sunday evening, July 4th.

THE JUDICIAL ELECTION

The nomination by the republicans of this district of Harry Edwards of Lee County and Franklin J. Stransky of Carroll County to fill the unexpired
terms of the two honored circuit
judges in this district who have passed away, was a wise and careful choice and will, we are sure, be given the almost unanimous support of all the voters of the district at the election July 27.

Both men are lawyers of the highest calibre, men of the finest character, young, energetic, ambitious and fitted in every way to fill the high office of circuit judge. They will be a credit to the counties that put them forward for the office and to the district.

While the law requires nomination
by parties for this office, there is little of party politics in the nomination and election. It is true that a number of democrats met in Freeport
and nominated a democratic ticket, but party lines will be disregarded in the election. Mr. Edwards, of Dixon, has the support of the democrats as well as republicans. His position was signed by every member of the Lee County bar, in which all political parties are represented. Mr. Stransky's candidacy had the same sort of support in his home county.

Edwards and Stransky should receive the unanimous support of every right thinking voter at the special election in July.

LOVED FOR THE FLAW

A girl looks into her mirror closely and regrets that her nose isn't quite straight.

She might be more contented could she realize that perfection is not greatly admired on this side of the world in 1920.

Greek statues represent an approach to perfection. But admiration for them is very moderate. They are not humanly interesting.

Japanese prints express a similar ideal. In each face is the same, calm, meaningless expression, devoid of individuality. That is one reason why Japanese prints appeal to only a few persons in the United States.

Little individual imperfections of feature distinguish and make popular the decorative portraits of girls painted by Neysa McMein.

The girl whose nose isn't quite straight may find it is for that flaw rather than for a perfection, that she is loved.

Americans have grown away from their old admiration of perfect copper-plate handwriting. This same modern tendency is shown in many other things.

GRAND OLD MAN

Sam Gompers rightly belongs in that world-class of honored and useful citizens, the class of Grand Old Men. There aren't many in that class living today, but there is quite a lengthy roll of them when you begin back with Methuselah and come down to June 1920.

England has had her Gladstone;
France her Foch; Germany her Wagner; Russia her Tolstoi, and so forth and so forth, for generation after generation. The United States of today isn't lacking in Grand Old Men.
There's Tom Edison, for instance,
and a goodly sprinkling of white haired leaders here and there all over the country. With them you must rank Sam Gompers, who, more than any other American, is responsible for the progress labor has made within the United States.

Edwards' promise to make New Jersey as wet as the Atlantic must now be taken with an equal proportion of salt.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS
by Olive Roberts Barton

Mr. Tingaling Goes Collecting
Mr. Tingaling, the fairy landlord of the Land-of-Deer-Knows-Where, wasn't getting very much rent from his tenants, as he had such a kind heart, in spite of the things he said sometimes. And when people were in trouble, he either gave them back their rent or told them never to mind
it at all.

But he began to realize that although it was the thirty-second day of the month, his pockets were still empty, almost, and that Nancy and fast his little ice-cream saucer had slid down over his nose. If it hadn't, he could have named two dozen more families who lived in Maple

tioned enough to show that the rents

to quite considerable.

ment houses, where whole bunches of people live."

all Nancy had in hers was their lit-

we'll go to the apartment houses

said Tingaling. "We'll get a lot

"There is one flat," he went on,
when he had pushed his hat up to where it belonged, "where two families live, one night and one day, sort owls live there daytime and the red squirrels live there night-time, being as houses are so scarce. What do you say if we go there first?"

"Oh, yes!" cried Nancy and Nick.
"Do let's." So off they all trooped to Maple Tree Flats.

Health
Advice

By Uncle Sam, M. D.
Health Questions Will Be Answered
If Sent to Information Bureau
U. S. Public Health Service, Washington, D. C.

FEEDING YOUR CHILDREN.

Q.—Your candid opinion as to the feeding of cabbage, cinnamon rolls, peas, beans, corn, pie, cake, fruit
sauces, nuts and pancakes to children between two and three years of age, is requested. Any helpful or interesting data in regard to the general care of a child's health from birth to five years of age would be appreciated.

A.—Milk should constitute the principal article of diet in a child of this age. Care should be observed to obtain as pure a quality of milk as possible, keep it in a state of absolute cleanliness and at a temperature of about 50 degrees F.

Very cold milk should never be given to the child, and if necessary this might be warmed before feeding, especially in cases of very young children.

The child should receive food in proportion in which the different food elements are to be found in mother's milk; namely, protein 1.5 per cent, fat 3.5 per cent, carbohydrate (sugar and starches) 6.5 per cent, salts 0.2 per cent, other constituents 0.6 per cent, water 87.7 per cent. The amount of food required, of course, will vary with the age of the child.

Fruit juices, especially the juice of oranges and strained tomato juice, are essential articles of diet from the standpoint of scurvy prevention. In all cases where the child is given pasteurized, heated or condensed milk,

the juice or oranges or tomatoes
should be given in proportion of one to two teaspoonfuls a day.

In the event fresh cow's milk is not available, the most excellent substitute
may be found in a good preparation of whole dried milk, which usually comes in five-pound tins. This powder contains 7 1/2 per cent butter fat.

In addition to strict attention to the child's diet, avoiding carefully the use of hot bread, cakes, sweets, corn, pies, nuts and pancakes mentioned by you, due attention should be paid to the correction of any physical defect
from which the child may be suffering, such as diseased tonsils and adenoids.

A child should have about twelve hours' sleep in a well-ventilated room
each 24 hours, and allowed to play out of doors in the sunshine as much as possible. Late hours are to be avoided, with particular care because of the effect thereof on the child's nervous system.

Finally, the bowels must be carefully regulated. A child of two years of age should have from one to two bowel actions each day. If suffering from constipation, green vegetables enumerated in the list, together with fruits, will frequently overcome this condition. Furthermore, the child should be encouraged to attempt a bowel movement at the same hour regularly each day, thereby cultivating the habit of regularity which will naturally lessen the tendency to constipation.

erybody. Why, at 'Z—s', he named a world-famous bookstore, 'I saw a counter piled higher than my head with new mysticism literature.

And the pile was labeled 'advanced thought!' I gave the books the once over. Authors mostly new to me, but I agreed with the label. Their thought had certainly 'advanced' beyond the barriers of this life and had boldly invaded the realms of the unknown. But most of the authors spoke quite positively, my dear. For the love of truth, drop this ouija dementia
—darling!"

"As a total unbeliever, I'm as much out of it as you are, Bob. I simply want to see Katherine reveal herself.
I want to prove my theory," I insisted.

"Haven't you a particle of conscience, Jane?" Bob asked severely.
"Nope!" I said, with a pout and a little girl courtesy, which always fascinates him.

He gathered me up in his arms and we ended our differences with a hug.
Since our last awful trouble over the Searle letters we are both mighty careful to avoid an argument.

Chrys and I found Katherine Miller
arrayed in a creation which harmonized with her background. The feature of her costume was a smock or over-blouse of the latest mode. I had seen the garment in a shop window and it was marked "$113 & War Tax." I had studied it and I knew that any clever girl could duplicate the thing for about $13—and no tax! It was merely a black satin slip-over with sleeves which stopped above the elbow

in the new way. It reached to the hips, where it was bound by a sash which looked exactly like a fichu which had slipped out of place and twisted to one side.

The pointed neck of the blouse and all the edges of sleeves and sash and hem were coarsely buttonholed with jade green wool. That decoration would have satisfied most women, but the imagination of the designer had run riot in this case and had sprinkled the garment irregularly with disks
of variegated rainbow-hued satin.
They were the size of small oranges
and were buttonholed to the satin with the jade green wool.

"Goodness me! I could cut it out without a pattern," I said after we had exclaimed to the wearer's satisfaction. "Any girl could make one like it out of two yards of satin. That sash is merely the gores of silk which were trimmed to shape the seams. And the blouse could be made out of airplane linen, or figured voile, or pongee—or almost any old remanant!"

"Jane, you should have been a dressmaker," said Chrys. "You always get so much fun finding out how clothes are put together!"

Perhaps the trend of our thoughts was too frivolous to suit the denizens of the spirit world. Some unfortunate influence made it difficult for Katherine to evoke a dignified "control." I had begun to feel horribly bored after half an hour of futile inquiry, made by the ouija pointer, and I was about to excuse myself and depart when I saw Katherine Miller stiffen suddenly and sit up as straight as a poker, while her dainty, pink finger tips pushed the pointer from letter to letter of the ouija board.

Chrys was startled, I could see, but she murmured softly so that Katherine might not be disturbed:

"A trance, if ever I saw one! Your pencil, Jane! Take down the messages as I spell them out!"

A man has the best of it. He doesn't have to sweat through three coats of powder.

DRAFT OF PLATFORM FOR DEMOCRATS LEFT TO COMMITTEE OF 9

And Bryan Was Not Selected as One of That Number

By Associated Press Leased Wire
San Francisco, June 29. — Actual preparation of the Democratic platform delegated last night to a sub-committee of nine under administration leadership, waited today until the platform committee of 53 kept open house to hear to final suggestions and arguments from many sources.

Labor, liquor and the Irish question all subject of disagreement among party leaders, were up for debate at the committee's public hearing. Besides there were many speakers on issue of lesser controversy and there seemed little prospect that the long list could be finished until late in the day.

Meantime, as observers studied the make-up of the sub-committee it became more apparent that the real contest over the platform would come after the sub-committee report had been laid before the full committee for review. William J. Bryan, omitted by the administration leaders from membership on the sub-committee, said he probably would not present his plans on prohibition, the League of Nations and other subjects for sub-committee consideration at all.

Picked Wilson Friends.
Selected by Senator Glass of Virginia after he had been unanimously chosen chairman of the platform committee, the sub-committee was expected to show a majority of administration supporters and a majority also against inclusion of any wet plank in the platform. Senator Glass, understood to be President Wilson's choice to head the committee, made his selection after a long conference with Secretary Colby of the state department, a member of the committee of the District of Columbia.

Secretary Colby was one of those given membership on the sub-committee. Besides Mr. Bryan, Senator Walsh of Massachusetts who advocates a treaty plank out of accord with administration views; W. Bourke Cochran of New York, a leader in the fight for Irish recognition and James R. Nugent of New Jersey who wants a wet plank, were left off the list of nine.

In the public session today a delegation headed by Frank P. Walsh were granted a hearing on the Irish recognition proposal and representatives of the anti-Saloon League were among those to appear on the prohibition issue. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor was granted a hearing on the request of organized labor.

CHURCH NOTES.

GRACE CHURCH NOTES.

The new bell was dedicated in appropriate exercises on Sunday morning by the people of the Grace Evangelical church. All the money needed to pay for it was eagerly subscribed and arrangements were made to purchase a new song book for the Sunday school.

Miss Charlotte Long, of Chicago, gave an address at the young people's meeting which was greatly appreciated. There was an excellent spirit in the evening service.

The prayer meeting will be held on Wednesday evening at 7:45 hereafter instead of on Thursday evening as in the past. The choir will meet after the prayer meeting.

The Sunday school has decided to hold its annual picnic Monday, July 5, at Lowell Park. An excellent time is being planned for the picnic.

music, the clash and stir of the military band, the vivid wall of color where a great flag swept from ceiling to floor before the delegates, the note struck by the Marine color guard on the platform and through it all the keen, wine-like quality of the cool salt breeze that swept in from the wide reaches of the Pacific. All these things were busy even before the flag swung up in graceful folds to disclose the President's likeness and send the convention into a frenzy of cheering.

The burst of feeling did not die with adjournment. Long after there was still a hint of it in the voices of the delegates.

The same subsiding undercurrents ran through the deliberations of the committee. It was there with the collapse of the move to prevent the election of Senator Glass, a movement that had the backing of William J. Bryan.

Have Grip On Convention.
Senator Robinson's selection for permanent chairman was more of a foregone conclusion. No opposing candidate had been selected. The administration forces now have a strong grip on the machinery which will write the confession of faith for the party's 1920 campaign. There will be battles in committee over many planks; but there was less prospect today than at any time since the convention leaders began to assemble, in the opinion of most political observers schooled in the ways of conventions, of an open fight on the floor. Administration leaders appeared confident that differences could be ironed out in committee.

Bryan Plank Announced.
Mr. Bryan has put forward the League of Nations plank on which he would have the convention stand. It declares for such reservations as are necessary to secure ratifications and is in sharp conflict with the position taken before the convention yesterday by National Chairman Homer S. Cummings in his keynote speech. Mr. Cummings lashed at the attitude of Republican senators in the treaty fight, charging that they had sought nullification, not reservations. He declared that no reservation would be accepted at the life of the covenant would have been rejected by the administration and administration forces in the convention are expected to cling to that line.

Whether Mr. Bryan, like a good trader, had asked more than he expected to get and is willing to take less is not clear. The administration leaders stimulated by the victories of yesterday, reiterated their confidence that no minority report on the treaty plank could carry.

Evaded Prohibition.
Other planks may cause committee discord, but there was a word of cheer for Irish sympathizers in Mr. Cummings' speech. The only issue he did not deal with directly in his keynote address was that over a party statement on prohibition enforcement. In that issue may be wrapped up the fate of some aspirants for the presidential nomination. The battle has come to the surface in a caucus of the New York delegation which voted without roll call to urge modification of the enforcement law.

The session left behind it echoes of "gag rule" charges and assertions that if a floor battle were insisted upon by the New Yorkers, the party's chances at the polls would be ruined. Events so far have shown no marked reaction over discussion of nomination booms. There seemed to be a general feeling that prospect of Mr. McAdoo's selection had increased, but there was no definite development upon which it could be based by those who took this view.

With a member of the President's cabinet in the race in the person of Attorney General Palmer and a former cabinet member, Mr. McAdoo, being urged just as vigorously, no candidate has yet been formally characterized as the choice of the president. Administration forces, machine like in their unanimity of action on other matters are at odds on candidates, each group supporting its own man. The reflex of their joint victories is therefore not easy to trace in the nomination fight.

The convening hour of the convention today was one o'clock. Delegates not busy with committee duties were off jaunting. There is a strong element of sight seeing in the delegations composed as they are for the most part of folks who have never before seen the far west.

the loss of lives and property resulting to American citizens in Mexico. Nevertheless, the provisions of that platform regarding Mexico are ambiguous and indefinite. Does the plank in the republican platform on Mexico mean that if the property or lives of American citizens in Mexico are hereafter endangered this government will make war on Mexico and establish a protectorate? Why was the convention not frank enough to announce a definite policy? Why was its meaning concealed in a multiplicity of ambiguous words?

Armenian Mandate
"The president is condemned for asking authority of congress to exercise a mandate for Armenia. It has never been contemplated by any one that the U. S. should assume that responsibility without first prescribing the terms and conditions of the mandate. It would not be difficult for the United States to so safeguard its responsibilities as to proceed with the united support of England, France, Italy and Japan, as well as every other member of the league."

"The chief issue is whether the United States shall contract with other nations to prevent unnecessary wars; whether the waste and sacrifices of unjustifiable conflicts shall be superseded by orderly tribunals for the settlement of disputes among nations. If the republicans win, the small nations which obtain their independence through association in the war with the allies will be over- come by their recent enemies, and Europe quickly will collapse into its pre-war condition of oppression and threatened anarchy. Our country will incur the distrust and contempt of her former allies and our people will earn a reputation for selfishness and irresponsibility which will require centuries to counteract."

Duty of Delegates
"If this war ends and the allies go their separate ways without substituting justice for force in the settlement of international disputes, the generations to come will be born to a heritage of wastefulness and bloodshed. The world wants and must have some substantial advice, some compensation for what it lost, and suffered in the war. If the delegates in this convention do their duty as our soldiers have done theirs, the voters of the nation will not fail them. If we make this issue boldly we will win."

"Will the women of America who gave their men to our uniform prove indifferent to the cause of forever rendering impossible the recurrence of such a struggle as the war just ordered. It is profoundly significant that the movements for woman suffrage and for the prevention of needless wars proceed simultaneously."

The immediate ratification of the equal suffrage amendment will assure victory for the democratic party on a platform favoring the ratification of the treaty without destructive reservations. The women of America stand for peace and against war. "Never before has a nation wide political battle been waged in the cause of international justice, humanity and peace. The opposition has taken low and untenable ground. Let the democratic party occupy the heights. Never again will any great political party in America invite disaster by trifling with great problems."

ASKS FOURTH WITHOUT ANY REAL DAMAGE

State Fire Marshal Appeals to Folks to be Careful

Springfield, Ill.,
"A Fourth of July without fires or accidents."

This is the gist of an appeal sent to every community in the state today by State Fire Marshal John G. Gamber.

"It is absolutely essential that efforts be made now as never before, to conserve life and property from fire," he states. "Conservation and thrift must replace waste and extravagance as one of the most necessary steps in a readjustment to lower price levels."

"Property is being burned at the rate of one million dollars a day in the United States and one million and a quarter dollars a month in Illinois. Fifteen thousand persons die from burns every year in the nation."

"Every house burned contributes that much to the acute shortage of homes in the community at a time when prohibitive prices are preventing new construction from catching up with serious, immediate needs. Every merchantile stock destroyed adds to the unbearable burden of high prices. Every life lost, every person maimed, is an economic drain."

"Though the more dangerous fire works are now prohibited in most communities, danger exists in every firecracker and every piece of fireworks. Experience is altogether against their use. Where they are used every precaution should be taken to prevent injury to persons or fire to property. Especially should parents keep watch over children."

"Proper authorities will enforce ordinances and prosecute reckless individuals, but the prime need is individual carefulness and co-operation, which should be willingly and patriotically given."

William Lampin, of Polo, was here on business Saturday morning.

SENATOR REED DENIED PLACE BY COMMITTEE

Wilson Forces Add to Strength in Credential Body

By Associated Press Leased Wire

San Francisco, June 29.—Administration supporters strengthened their hold on the Democratic national convention through a series of victories in the credentials committee which decided three hotly fought contests. One of these was the denial of a seat in the convention to Senator James A. Reed of Missouri. The Clark Howell delegates in Georgia pledged to Attorney General Palmer, also were seated. Both actions were in accord with previous decisions of the national committee.

The credentials committee, however, overruled the national committee in the Oregon case where it seated R. R. Turner and John L. Schuyteman, giving each one-half a vote. Turner who was selected by the Oregon state committee to fill a vacancy caused by the death of George T. Baldwin, was forced to yield half of his vote to Schuyteman, described as a strong administration supporter. Schuyteman claimed the seat on the ground that he was the next highest man in the race for the four places.

All three contests were long drawn out and were marked by acrimonious statements and bitter personal attacks. Chairman Jamieson of Iowa maintained order with difficulty. But the administration group reigned when the voting came on each of the contests.

There was no indications from the Reed forces as to their next move. The senator was not at the hearing. Francis W. Wilson, counsel, said the senator's wishes would be consulted before further action was considered. He reminded the committee the fight was being made entirely by the delegations from the Kansas City district and that the senator, "never has and doesn't make a demand for the seat."

Thumb-Nail Sketches of Republican Candidates for Judges of 15th Circuit

HARRY EDWARDS, OF DIXON.
Harry Edwards was born June 27, 1880. He graduated with honors from the Dixon high school and completed his college education at the Dixon college and at the University of Wisconsin. Upon completing his law course at the university he studied for a time in the office of Judge R. S. Farrand, at Dixon, and shortly thereafter, he successfully passed the State Bar association and was admitted to practice in 1902. His appointment as assistant state's attorney of Lee county, soon followed, and he acted in that capacity until 1908, when he was elected state's attorney of Lee county. His services as a prosecutor was so eminently satisfactory that he was re-elected in 1912, and again in 1916, and his record in that position is one of which he may well be proud. His active and vigorous prosecution of criminals and his efficient co-operation with all phases of law enforcement work, has been productive of most beneficial results. Mr. Edwards possesses all of the characteristic attributes of the successful lawyer. By diligence and industry, he has developed into one of the most skilled members of his profession in this section of Illinois. He has a natural aptitude for trial work, and has been actively and successfully engaged in much of the important litigation of Lee county during the past fifteen years. Of a naturally conservative and thrifty disposition he has established a reputation as one of the most substantial public spirited citizens of his community and his sound business judgment is frequently sought on matters of great importance. As a public speaker, he has exceptional ability. Mr. Edwards is inherently of a judicial temperament. Naturally of keen perception, his mind has become especially trained in grasping all phases of intricate legal problems, and in determining the equities of those interested, with justice and precision. His election as Circuit Judge of this District, will insure to the people of this commonwealth the proper administration of justice in the courts where he may preside.

F. J. STRANSKY, OF SAVANNA.
Franklin J. Stransky was born in Carroll county, Illinois, May 28th, 1878. His father, A. J. Stransky, one of the pioneers of Savanna, Illinois, was born in Racine, Wis. Mr. Stransky's grandfather, on the paternal side, was one of the early pioneers of Racine, Wis. His mother was born in Jo Daviess county, Illinois, the grandparents, on the maternal side, being pioneer farmers of Jo Daviess county, Illinois. His early education was received in the public schools at Savanna, Ill., where he was graduated in 1896. After graduating, he attended school at Ann Arbor, Mich., and was graduated from the University of Michigan in June, 1900. While at the University of Michigan, Mr. Stransky won high honors in the University debates in 1899 and 1900. Immediately after graduation he was admitted to practice law by the Supreme Court of Illinois and started his law practice in his native town. Mr. Stransky's parents were in only moderate financial condition, so that it was necessary for him to work his way through college to a large extent. He started in Savanna without any financial means whatever, and what he has acquired since has been as a result of his own efforts. In 1902 Mr. Stransky was appointed Assistant State's Attorney of Carroll county, and in 1904 was elected State's Attorney of Carroll county, to which office he has been elected for four successive terms and is now holding such office. Since his admission to the bar, Mr. Stransky has been attorney for counsel in almost every important case in Carroll county and has tried many important cases in various other counties of the state, and in other states. Among the important cases in which he was attorney are the Myers Murder case, the prosecution of the so-called "Bridge Combine" or "Bridge Trust," (which prosecutions he conducted in Carroll county and assisted in Stephenson county), the various cases arising out of the Dunshee estate, and the various cases arising out of the Caroline Mark Estate, and the administration of the trust in that estate. Mr. Stransky's record as State's Attorney is extraordinary. Out of more than 1,400 cases handled by him as State's Attorney, there have been but three acquittals. His success in the trial of civil cases has also been extraordinary, inasmuch as he has won in the trial courts, in the Appellate and Supreme Courts, more than 95 per cent of the cases handled by him. In 1892 he was married to Clara Upson, of Savanna, Ill., and is the father of two sons, aged respectively 16 and 13 years, who are now attending the public schools in Savanna. During the world war, Mr. Stransky served the government in the capacity of member of the Legal Advisory Board and also in the capacity of Government Appeal Agent. Mr. Stransky is affiliated with the following lodges and fraternities: Blue Lodge and Chapter of the Masonic Order in Savanna; Commandery of the Masonic Order in Mt. Carroll, Ill.; Consistory of the Masonic Order at Freeport; Shrine of the Masonic Order at Rockford. He is also a member of the Odd Fellows, Freeport Lodge of Elks, Loyal Order of Moose and is a member of the Hamilton Club of Chicago.

FURS FOR MILADI FROM OVER THE BORDER

Cubs at Atlin Fox Farm

The growth of population in the United States has killed or driven away most of the animals wont to supply furs for our better halves and for such of our lesser halves as can afford them after the ladies are supplied. The old-time trapper is practically extinct in this country. He has moved his habitat to Canada, where the procuring of fur is still an important industry, but there, too, the fur-bearing animals and the men who hunt them are driven ever northward before the advancing outputs of civilization. The demand for fur is greater than ever before—Miladi must have her coats, her muffs, her neckpieces, cost hubby or father what it may. The Russian supply is now cut off and Canada must supply most of the skins. She is exporting more furs than ever before, but still the demand exceeds the supply. The trappers cannot get enough fur; prices are the highest in the history of the trade and the only solution seems to be the domestication of the fur-bearing animals. The domestication or fur farming industry, although now in its infancy, promises to be one of the great Canadian industries of the future. Prince Edward Island is the center of the business, although, of course, it is carried on in other parts of the Dominion. Beaver raising is carried on in certain provinces, while fox farming is very profitable. Red fox is in great demand; black fox is worth $75 to $1,000 a skin, and silver foxes are worth $10,000 to $15,000 a pair. Foxes have one litter a year of from one to nine pups; three is a good average for a well managed farm. Mink is also raised, the largest farm being at Lac Chaud, Quebec. Raccoon is domesticated in several provinces, and skunk raising has been successfully attempted and on a large scale is very profitable. The skunks are readily tamed and can easily be handled without cutting the scent glands. At the recent fur sales in Vancouver muskrats brought $4; fisher, $3; red fox, $40; prime interior mink, $15; marten, $40, and weasel, $1.75. For years London, St. Louis and New York have been the selling centers to which Canadian furs have travelled, and St. Louis has been the world's premier fur mart, but Canada has finally come to a realization of the money lost in this way, and in the future will market her own furs. It is expected that Montreal will become one of the most important fur markets of the world. The auction at Montreal will be conducted by a large company capitalized at $5,000,000 and will be largely co-operative in nature.

The Eagles didn't get started till the fifth inning but after that they held the Independents pretty well and in the seventh inning started a rally, but the lead was too big to overcome.

Money Unless This Delightful New Vanishing Cream Quickly Shows a Decided Improvement. Try it Today at Our Expense.

Buttermilk Cream creates beauty almost like magic. The most wonderful thing about it is the fact that whilst it turns the dull, most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty and makes red or rough hands or arms snowy white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use after application. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the least shininess or greasiness of the skin. No matter whether you are troubled with a poor complexion, wrinkles, puffiness around the eyes, freckles, crows feet or lines around the mouth, ugly finger nails, or just a simple roughness of the face, hands or arms caused by wind or sun, you will find that any or all of these troubles will quickly disappear with the use of Howard's Buttermilk Cream. To prove this to your complete satisfaction, get a small quantity today with the understanding that the purchase money will be cheerfully refunded to any dissatisfied user. Beautiful actress says, "A short massage with Howard's Buttermilk Cream at night before retiring is all that is necessary." Public Drug and Book Co., can supply you.

THIS LIBRARY IS REAL CIRCULATING ONE.
Chicago—No excuse for Evanston kids and their elders to dodge good books. Evanston library authorities have established the first circulating library that really circulates. It's on wheels — an automobile fitted with racks containing books. People watch for the library van more than the ice-cream cart, says the librarians.

Work Begins on I. C. Extension

Amboy, June 29.—The contract for the Illinois Central yard extension has been let to Mr. M. L. Windham of Centalla, and he is now on the ground with full equipment to begin the work. His contract calls for the extension of six tracks from the north yard across Green River to a point 2,000 feet south. A large amount of filling will have to be done and a large steam shovel is already on the ground, south of the Reinhold place, ready to go ahead with the work. A camp for the workmen is being constructed at the same place where the camp was last year when the new yard was being built.

The contract calls for an extension of the present wood pile bridge to carry the new tracks, but a party of officials of the railroads were here Wednesday looking over the ground, and as a result of their visit it may be decided to put in a more permanent structure.
